

VIVIAN MABUNI BIO

Vivian Mabuni is a national speaker, author, bible teacher and podcast host. With over 30 years on staff with Cru, Viv loves teaching about the Bible and its practical application to ministry and life.

She has been a keynote speaker at IF:Gathering, QCommons, Cru Winter Conferences, and Family Life's "Weekend To Remember" marriage conferences. Her writing has appeared in Christianity Today, SheReadsTruth, Our Daily Bread, Propel Sophia and her teachings have been featured on the YouVersion Bible App's "Verse of the Day". Author of "Open Hands, Willing Heart", she also serves on the Board of Trustees for Denver Seminary and is the founder & host of "Someday Is Here" a podcast for AAPI (Asian American Pacific Islanders) leaders.

She is passionate about helping raise up and equip the next generation of women leaders. Viv loves drinking coffee with her husband of 32 years, Darrin. They live in Mission Viejo, CA and have three young adult kids, a daughter-in-law, and a 115 pound German Shepherd dog. Connect with her on Instagram/Twitter @vivmabuni or on her website www.vivianmabuni.com