

Bio : Lisa Shea (Lee-sa Shay)

After living through a devastating divorce Lisa gave her life to Christ and re-married. She had the family she always dreamed of yet found herself spiraling toward divorce a second time.

Lisa shares her compelling, life-changing story and how the powerful, unchanging promises of God transformed her life. Her experiences made her passionate about the freedom you can have when believing and acting upon the truths in God's Word. It's an empowering message that encourages you to live in victory!

Since God's dramatic transformation, Lisa has been blessed to be a speaker, author, a Bible study leader to hundreds of women of all ages, as well as a mentor to ministry leaders. In addition to equipping marriages, Lisa is passionate about empowering men and women in the power of prayer, understanding and using spiritual gifts and healthy leadership. Learn more about Lisa's ministry at LisaSheaMinistries.com.

She and her husband Mike have three children and live in North Carolina. She is the Director of Women's Ministries at Love and Respect Ministries.